Directions for Key-holders.—Upon the discovery of a fire near your signal-box, turn the crank slowly and steadily about twenty-five or thirty times, then wait a few moments, and if you hear no alarm on the large bells, turn as before. If you still hear no alarm, go to the next box and give the alarm from that. Never open the box or touch the crank except in case of fire. Never signal for a fire seen at a distance. Do not give an alarm for a burning chimney. Be sure your box is locked before leaving it. Upon a second alarm being struck for the same fire it will be considered a general alarm. Second alarms will be turned in only by order of the Chief Engineer or his Assistants.

Keys of the signal boxes are deposited in the vicinity of each box, at such places as are indicated upon cards placed thereon.

Boxes designated with a star are Automatic ones. An alarm from these is given by pulling down the hook once and letting go, unerring mechanism doing the rest.

Complaints concerning the working of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, irregular striking of the bells and gongs, broken wires, etc., should in all cases be made at the Fire Alarm Office, Brenham Place.

In case of tumult or riot, whereby the services of the Police force are required, an alarm will be given, consisting of ten strokes upon the bells and gongs, repeated five times, which will be a signal for the Police to assemble at the City Hall. This alarm will be given only by order of the Mayor or Chief of Police.

The telegraph apparatus consists of about one hundred and forty miles of wire, divided into fourteen circuits, of which nine are signal circuits, or circuits running to the signal boxes. Alarm gongs are located in the different Engine, Hook and Ladder, and Hose houses, each connected with the Central Office by the fire-alarm circuits; and eight alarm bells for striking the number of the alarm box, located as follows: One on the Hall of the Exempt Fire Co., one on the Engine House on Sixth Street, one on the Engine House on Stockton Street, one on the Engine House on Second Street, one on the Engine House on California Street, one on the Engine House on Sixteenth Street, one on the Engine House on Bryant Street, and one on the Engine House on Pacific Street. The bells and gongs are each struck at the same time by electrical machinery. The Police and Health Apparatus consists of thirteen stations, each communicating with the Central Office, Brenham Place, where a constant watchfulness is exercised by the attending operator.

Domestic.—On letters, sealed packages, mail matter wholly or partly in writing, except book manuscript and corrected proofs passing between authors and publishers, and except local or drop letters, or United States postal cards; also all matter to which no specific rate of postage is assigned, and manuscript for publication in newspapers, magazines, or periodicals, three cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof.

On local or drop letters at offices where free delivery by carriers is established, two cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof.

On newspapers, magazines, and periodicals, exclusively in print and regularly issued at stated periods from a known office of publication, without addition by writing, mark or sign, and addressed to regular subscribers, two cents for each pound or fraction thereof, on publications issued weekly and oftener; less frequently, three cents for each pound or fraction thereof.

REGISTRATION OF DOMESTIC LETTERS.

Letters may be registered on payment of a fee of ten cents in addition to the regular letter rate of postage, but the Government takes no responsibility for safe carriage, or compensation in case of loss. Postmasters are required to register all letters properly presented for that purpose, but no letters are to be registered on Sunday.

POSTAL CARDS.

The object of the postal card is to facilitate letter correspondence, and provide for the transmission, through the mails, at a reduced rate of postage, of short communications, either printed or written in pencil or ink. They may, therefore, be used for orders, invitations, notices, receipts, acknowledgments, price lists, and other requirements of business and social life; and the matter desired to be conveyed may be either in writing or in print, or partially in both. The postage of one cent is paid by the stamp impressed on these cards to any office in the United States, and no further payment is required. No card is a "postal card" except such as are issued by the Post Office Department. According to the provisions of the Treaty of Berne, postal cards may be sent to the folllowing named countries (or others included in the General Postal Union), on the prepayment of postage two cents, viz: Algeria, Austria, Belguim, Denmark, Egypt, France, Germany, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Holland, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and Turkey; also to Newfoundland on prepayment of two cents, and to Canada same as domestic

POSTAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

The money order system is intended to promote public convenience, and to secure safety in the transfer, through the mails, of small sums of money. All principal Post Offices receive money and issue drafts for the same upon other Post offices, subject to the following charges and regulations:

Domestic Rates.—On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents; over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

British and Swiss Rates.—On orders not exceeding $10, 25 cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, 50 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 75 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, $1; over $40 and not exceeding $50, $1.25.

German Rates.—On orders not exceeding $5, 15 cents; over $5 and not exceeding $10, 25 cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, 50 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 75 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, $1; over $40 and not exceeding $50, $1.25.

A money order may be issued for any amount from one cent up to fifty dollars inclusive, but fractional parts of a cent must not be introduced into any money order or account. United States Treasury Notes, or National Bank Notes only received or paid. When a larger sum than fifty dollars is required, additional orders to make it up must be obtained. Not more than three orders of fifty dollars each can be remitted by one person each day to one payee.

An order is only payable at the office upon which it is drawn. The order should be collected within one year from its date. After once paying an order by whomsoever presented, provided the required information has been given by the party who presented it, the Department will not hold itself liable to any further claim, but in case of improper payment of an order, will endeavor to recover the amount for the owner.

CHURCHES.

BAPTIST.

First Baptist Church.

Location, north side of Eddy Street between Jones and Leavenworth. Rev. G. T. ABBOTT, Pastor; residence, 929 Tyler Street.

This church was organized in June, 1849, under the labors of its first Pastor, Rev. O. C. Wheeler. The society purchased a lot on Washington Street between Dupont and Stockton in the spring of that year for the sum of $10,000, and erected a wooden edifice thereon. It was dedicated in August, 1849, and was the first Protestant house of worship erected in California. Mr. Wheeler's pastorate ended in November, 1851. He was succeeded by the Rev. B. Brierly in May, 1852, who officiated until May, 1858. In July, 1859, Rev. D. B. Cheney was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge until 1867, when he was forced to resign on account of ill-health. After his resignation, Rev. C. A. Buckbee officiated as pastorate supply until the arrival of Rev. J. B. Thomas, February, 1868, who continued in charge until December, 1868, when he also was compelled by ill-health to resign. The Rev. A. R. Medbury took charge in November, 1870, and officiated until June 1, 1872, being succeeded by the Rev. E. B. Hulbert, who officiated as Pastor until December, 1877, when he resigned, on account of ill-health, and was succeeded by the Rev. G. T. Abbott, the present incumbent.

During the summer of 1857 a substantial brick edifice was erected on the site of the old edifice, in which the congregation worshipped until the summer of 1875, when the lot and building was sold for the sum of $29,500, and the erection of the present place of worship immediately commenced. Services were first held in the vestry of this building the fourth Sunday in January, 1876. While the edifice was being erected, the congregation worshipped in Washington Hall.

From this church the Columbia Square Baptist Church was organized, December, 1862; the Tabernacle Baptist Church, December, 1865; the San Pablo Baptist Church, February, 1867, and the Fifth Baptist Church, Sept. 1869.

Number of communicants, two hundred and ninety-two. The Sabbath School has an average attendance of about two hundred and fifty. The library contains about one thousand volumes.

Sabbath services morning and evening. Sabbath School at half-past twelve o'clock P. M. Prayer Meeting every Monday and Wednesday evenings; Church Covenant Meeting the Wednesday evening preceding the first Sabbath in each month.

Church Officers.—A. B. Forbes, Dr. A. S. Ferris, Peter Craig, R. W. Thompson, H. G. Fiske, and G. S. Abbott, Trustees; P. U. Blunt, Treasurer; G. L. Plympton, Clerk.

Metropolitan Baptist Church.

Location northeast corner of Fifth and Jessie streets. Rev. I. S. KALLOCH, D. D., Pastor; residence, 2314 Mission Street.

The Metropolitan Baptist Church is the result of a union of the Tabernacle Church, formerly worshipping on Post Street, between Hyde and Larkin, and the Second Church, formerly worshipping on Russ Street, near Columbia Square. Each of these churches, about January 1st, 1875, called to their pastorate Rev. I. S. Kalloch, of Leavenworth, Kansas. He visited them in February, 1875, and the result of his visit was the consolidation of the two churches and a united call to Dr. Kalloch to become their pastor, which he accepted, and entered upon his labors March 1st, 1875.

The church, mainly through the Christian liberality and enterprise of one of its members, Deacon Isaac Lankershim, has since built the Metropolitan Temple at a cost of $200,000. The main audience hall accommodates three thousand persons. The lecture room, with parlors adjoining, accommodates six hundred. Divine services are held every Sunday at eleven o'clock A. M., and half-past seven o'clock P. M. Young People's Meeting, Monday evening. Church Prayer Meeting, Wednesday evening.

Church Officers.—I. Lankershim, R. H. Clement, J. C. Robinson, B. W. Owens, C. B. Cooley, G. A. Case and C. W. Elliott, Deacons; C. A. Buckbee, Clerk; F. A. Jennings, Treasurer; I. S. Kalloch, R. H. Clement, G. A. Case, G. W. Britton, W. O. Gould, F. A. Jennings, C. M. Stickney, H. L. Whipple, C. W. Elliott, and Andrew Spaulding, Trustees.

CONGREGATIONAL.

First Congregational Church.

Location, southeast corner of Post and Mason streets. Rev. A. L. STONE, D.D., Pastor; residence 617 Bush Street.

This church was organized July 29, 1849, when Thomas Douglas and Frederick S. Hawley were chosen Deacons, and inducted into office on the following Sunday by Rev. T. D. Hunt, assisted by Rev. A. Williams. The society met in the school house on the Plaza, until it was required for other purposes, when the members were deprived of a regular place of meeting for several months. As early as practicable, however, efforts were made for the erection of a suitable house of worship, which resulted in the building of a commodious frame structure, twenty-five by fifty feet, on the corner of Jackson and Virginia streets, which was dedicated to the worship of God February 10, 1850. Rev. T. D. Hunt was chosen Pastor, and installed June 26, 1850, who, in this connection, it is proper to state, was the first Protestant clergyman, located as such, in the State, having arrived in San Francisco as early as October 29, 1848, and was immediately invited by the citizens, in a meeting called for the purpose, to act as their chaplain for one year, commencing November 1, 1848, in which capacity he was laboring at the time of the organization of this church. The congregation increased so greatly as to require a larger house. Accordingly measures were adopted, in the summer of 1852, for the erection of the substantial brick edifice on the southwest corner of California and Dupont streets, which was dedicated on the tenth of July, 1853. The second pastor, Rev. E. S. Lacy, was installed July 6, 1856, and dismissed October 3, 1865. In the spring of 1870, the society deemed it essential to seek a different location and larger accommodations. Measures were taken which resulted in the erection of the present large and commodious house of worship. The dimensions are ninety-two feet frontage on Post Street by a depth of one hundred and thirty-five on Mason Street, and is ninety feet to the apex of the roof, which is steeply pitched. On the northwest angle is the grand tower and spire, rising to the height of two hundred and thirty feet, surmounted by a vane and weathercock in gilt. The style of architecture is the early English Gothic. The three principal entrances are on Post Street, with one in the tower fronting on Mason, and are all reached by broad flights of stone steps partly covered by deeply-recessed porches supported on brick piers and detached stone columns. The entrance doors are wide and made sliding, and are banded and ornamented with iron. Between the buttresses of the side walls are five large windows on each side of the church, having deeply molded and trained heads and recessed arches. These windows terminate with gables extending above the eaves of the building, and finished with iron terminals. The other gables throughout are finished with terminals, and those of the front and rear main gables are ornamented in character and richly gilded. The roof is broken by ventilators, in the style of dormers, having iron terminals, and the ornamental roof is crowned with a cast-iron ridgeway. The front of the church, on Post Street, is designed with groups of two and three-light windows, arranged centrally over doorways with deeply-recessed arches, relieved by white and dark brick ornamentally disposed. The tower on three of its faces has an arcade of light columns and arches, and the belfry has two large and lofty windows divided by buttresses on each face. The angle buttresses terminate upward in bold pinnacles, and group well with the canopies and pinnacles of the spire windows. There is also a second or midway tier of spire windows. The front entrance doors open into a large and airy vestibule, with doors opening opposite into the auditorium, and stairways, right and left leading to the galleries. The auditorium is eighty-eight feet in length on the ground floor, and seventy-four feet wide—the length above the gallery, including the organ and choir recess, being one hundred and twenty-five feet. The hight to the center portion of the ceiling is sixty-five feet. The seating accommodations on ordinary occasions will be for about seventeen hundred persons, but will comfortably receive two thousand. The basement is Plymouth Congregational Church.

Location, east side of Taylor Street, between Geary and O'Farrell. Rev. T. K. NOBLE, Pastor; residence, 2200 Steiner Street.

This church was organized on the twelfth of January, 1862, with twenty-six members. It grew out of a Sunday School which had been maintained in the building corner of Mason and Geary streets, known as the "Little Brown Church." Here public worship was established in the autumn of 1861, and the Rev. John Kimball engaged to take charge of the enterprise. He began his very diligent and successful labors in November, 1861, and continued in them until January, 1863, when he resigned and went to the East to do service in the armies of his country. In December, 1862, the church and society invited the Rev. J. A. Benton, of Sacramento, to become their Pastor. After a faithful pastorate of six years he resigned to take the position of professor in the Pacific Theological Seminary at Oakland. After a vacancy of about four years, during which the Revs. E. G. Beckwith, John Kimball, and others supplied the church, the Rev. T. K. Noble, of Cleveland, Ohio, was unanimously called to the pastorate, and was formally installed December 6, 1872.

The present edifice on Taylor Street, which was dedicated April 10, 1864, is a structure forty-seven and a half by ninety-two feet, with a spire one hundred and fifty feet high. It is complete in all its parts and arrangements, having a basement under the whole, divided into lecture room, ladies' parlor, and infant class room. It has a Pastor's study in the rear. Third Congregational Church.

Location, south side of Fifteenth Street, near Mission. Rev. EDWARD P. BAKER, Acting Pastor; residence, 1909 Jessie Street.

This church had its origin in the fall of 1862, when several persons, heads of families, residing in the vicinity of the Mission Dolores, met to consult together in regard to the practicability of organizing a church in the neighborhood.

After much discussion extending through several informal meetings, it was decided to extend an invitation to the Rev. E. G. Beckwith, then pursuing his theological studies at Andover, Mass., to visit this city and upon the organization of a Congregational Church at the Mission, to become its Pastor. The invitation was accepted and Mr. Beckwith with his family arrived on Sunday, the twenty-sixth day of October, 1862, and on the next Sabbath he preached his first sermon to his future church and society, and on the following Sabbath organized a Sabbath School.

On January 7, 1863, the organization of the church was completed, and on the 8th of February following the installation services took place in the old church edifice on First Avenue.

After five years of faithful labor, Mr. Beckwith resigned the pastorate, much to the regret of his congregation. From October, 1867, to April, 1869, the church was without a settled Pastor, the Rev. Selah Merrill supplying the pulpit from December, 1867, to June, 1868. In August, 1868, the Rev. William C. Pond was invited to fill the pulpit for the period of six months, at the expiration of which time he accepted a call from the congregation to become their settled Pastor, and continued in charge until the fall of 1872. Rev. Edward P. Baker has been Acting Pastor since October, 1872.

From November 2, 1862, until October 30, 1864, the old Methodist church edifice on First Avenue, which had become private property, was occupied by the church and society as a place of worship. The first services in the present chapel were held on the sixth day of November, 1864. The total cost of lot, building, and furniture was $14,000.

Services are held every Sabbath at eleven o'clock A.M. and half past seven o'clock P.M. Prayer Meeting every Wednesday evening.

The building occupied by the society is of wood, and is neatly finished. It has an organ worth $2.000. The edifice cost about $5,000, exclusive of the amount ($5,000) paid for the lot. The dedication services occurred in March, 1865.

EPISCOPAL.

Trinity Church.

Location, northeast corner of Post and Powell streets. Rev. HIRAM W. BEERS, Rector; residence, 609 Sutter Street. Rev. C. N. Spalding and the Rev. E. B. Spalding, Assistants.

This is the oldest parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church on the Pacific Coast.

It had its beginning in Divine Service, celebrated by the Rev. Flavel S. Mines and the Rev. Augustus Fitch, Presbyters of the Diocese of New York, on the eighth day of July, 1849.

On the twenty-second of the same month, several citizens of the city resolved to form themselves into a congregation, to be known hereafter as the Holy Trinity Church.

On the twenty-ninth of July wardens and vestrymen were elected, and on the sixth of August the Rev. Mr. Mines was elected Rector.

A fifty-vara lot on the southwest corner of Jackson and Powell streets was purchased August 26, and a church edifice erected thereon, which was occupied the following December. In December, 1851, a lot on the north side of Bush Street, between Montgomery and Kearny streets, was purchased for the sum of $4,000, and a wooden edifice, forty by ninety feet, covered with corrugated iron, erected thereon. The first services in this church were held January 25, 1852. On the twenty-seventh of February of the same year, the name of the corporation was changed from the "Church of the Holy Trinity," to "Trinity Church." The Rev. Flavel S. Mines died August 1852, greatly lamented by all his parishioners. He was succeeded by the Rev. C. B. Wyatt, who commenced his parochial duties Feb. 26, 1853. On Sunday, the twenty-ninth of January, 1854, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Kip, D.D., landed in San Francisco, and preached in Trinity Church both morning and evening. On the ninth of April, 1854, being the Sunday before Easter, the rite of confirmation was administered in Trinity Church. This was the first episcopal service ever performed on the shores of the Pacific. Eighteen persons came forward to receive the rite—one of them being a native of China. In May, 1856, Dr. Wyatt returned to New York on a visit, and the Rev. S. Chipman Thrall, D.D., was placed in charge of the church until March, 1857, when Mr. Wyatt resigned and Dr. Thrall was elected his successor, who officiated until November, 1862, when he resigned and the Rev. C. B. Wyatt was again elected Rector.

In November, 1863, a fifty-vara lot on the corner of Powell and Post streets, was purchased for the sum of $75,000, and subsequently an adjoining lot on the east, at an additional cost of $5,000. The lot and building on Bush Street was sold in September, 1866, for $70,000, and during the same month the corner stone of the present edifice was laid. It was consecrated to divine service on the twenty-second of September, 1867. During the construction of the new church the congregation worshiped in St. John's Hall, Masonic Temple. In the spring of 1869 Mr. Wyatt resigned, and was succeeded by the Rev. Elias Birdsall, who officiated until May, 1870, when he also resigned. The Rev. C. W. Turner then took charge of the parish, and officiated until January, 1871. He was succeeded by the Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, who officiated until July 1, 1873, when he resigned, and the Rev. G. D. Silliman took charge, and continued to officiate till March, 1st, 1875. The Rev. Dr. Beers having in the mean time been elected Rector, entered upon his duties about the middle of March, 1875.

Grace Church.

Location, southeast corner of California and Stockton streets. Rev. WILLIAM H. PLATT, Rector; residence, 1407 Jones Street.

This church was organized in 1849, the statistics of which may be summed up as follows: The first Rector of the Church was Dr. J. L. Ver Mehr, who preached his first sermon in California at the house of Mr. Merrill, in this city, September 10, 1849. A chapel was next built toward the close of 1849, at the corner of Powell and John streets, which was first opened for divine services December 30, 1849. This was the first Grace Church. It was sixty feet long by twenty feet wide, and cost $8,000. On the twenty-eighth of April, 1850, Grace Church was formally organized. E. Bryant and D. S. Turner were elected Wardens, and Dr. Ver Mehr chosen Rector. The first vestry meeting was held on May 20, 1850. In February, 1851, the contract was made to build the former Grace Church on Powell Street, which was finished that summer. Dr. Ver Mehr preached the first sermon in this edifice. Bishop Kip arrived in San Francisco January 29, 1854 and on the twenty-fifth day of February following assumed the Rectorship, at which time Dr. Ver Mehr resigned. The Bishop continued to officiate until Palm Sunday, April 5, 1857, when F. C. Ewer was ordained, and on the next Sunday he preached his first sermon. On the fourteenth of April Mr. Ewer was elected to be Assistant Minister, and on the twentieth of the same month he took charge of the parish, the Bishop having departed for the Atlantic States. The Bishop having returned and resigned the Rectorship, Mr. Ewer was elected Rector of the Church, December 15, 1857, and retained that position until April, 1861, when he resigned. At the earnest solicitation of the Vestry, Bishop Kip again became Rector, and served as such until October, 1864. Rev. H. Goodwin being then Assistant Minister, continued as such, when in September, 1866, he was elected Rector, and on the first of July, 1867, resigned. The Rev. James S. Bush was then elected Rector; he entered upon his duties in December following, and officiated until the fall of 1872, when he resigned, and was succeeded by the Rev. Charles G. Williamson, who officiated until June, 1873. The present Rector entered upon the discharge of his duties November, 1873. Soon after he resigned, and went to Louisville, Ky., but at the urgent call of the vestry returned in the spring of 1874, and has since continued as Rector.

The corner stone of the present church edifice was laid by Bishop Kip in May, 1860. The building is one hundred and thirty-five feet deep and sixty-two feet wide. Hight, from floor to apex of roof, sixty-six feet. The edifice was first opened for public worship September 28, 1862, and was consecrated on the third day of May, 1868. Cost over $100,000.

John Chittenden for the first introduction of this church service into the neighborhood. The Rev. J. Cameron, ordained in April, 1860, officiated as Curate—the Rev. John Chittenden being his Rector. By the energy of the Curate, assisted by his brother clergymen, he established the Episcopal Church permanently in this vicinity. The Rev. T. W. St. Luke's Church.

Location, south side of Pacific Street between Polk Street and Van Ness Avenue. Rev. E. S. PEAKE, Rector; residence, 1723 Clay Street.

The first services of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Spring Valley which led to the organization of this church, were held by the Rev. Giles Easton, Assistant Rector of Grace Church, in Spring Valley School House, on Broadway Street, between Larkin and Polk, on the fourth of March, 1866.

A Sunday School was shortly after organized, with Mr. John Wigmore as Superintendent, and Mr. Edward Barry as Librarian. The Mission was at that time called St. Andrew's Church.

On the twelfth of August, 1866, Rev. D. J. Lee took charge of the Mission, and changed the place of holding service to Pixley Hall, on the corner of Pacific and Polk streets. Shortly after, a society of ladies, under the name of Martha Society, was formed for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase a lot and to erect a church building thereon. About this time the name of the Mission was changed to the Church of the Nativity.

The Rev. Dr. Lee having resigned in October, 1867, Rev. F. O. Barstow was appointed as missionary to the station. After the resignation of Mr. Barstow, the vestry elected the Rev. J. B. Gray, Rector, who entered upon his duties the first Sunday in September, 1869. The Rev. E. S. Peake succeeded to the Rectorship December 1, 1870.

Present place of worship, St. Paul's German Evangeli- l Lutheran Church, on the south side of Mission Street, etween Fifth and Sixth.

This church was organized on the twentieth of October, 870, by the Rev. Christian Hvistendahl, who came to an Francisco under the auspices of the Norwegian utheran Synod of America. Having labored here for x weeks he went to the East, but returned in April, 871, in accordance with a unanimous call from the conregation to become their Pastor. In June, 1872, he visited the Scandinavian countries, principally for the sake of his health, and returned in October to resume his labors. The project of starting a Scandinavian Church has, during the last twelve years, been tried three or four times without success, and these failures have, more than anything else, hindered the present work. The church has, however, been self-supporting from the start, and its friends are confident that they will have at no distant time their own place of worship. There is at present in the Building Fund about $7,500. A good choir has been organized, and the future prospects of the church are encouraging. A Ladies' Society to promote the interests of the church and for the relief of poor Scandinavians has lately been organized. Services in the Scandinavian language Sundays and holidays at two o'clock P.M., and services Friday at forty-five minutes past seven o'clock P.M. The seats are always free and strangers are welcome. This enterprise was commenced by Rev. J. D. Strong in the Spring Valley School House, in April, 1862. Union Sabbath School, under the superintendence of R. R. Waterman, had previously existed in the neighborhood for more than two years, but was not formally connected with the church movement till near the close of the year, when an effort was made to erect a house of worship, but failed for want of the requisite funds. During the following summer the effort was revived, and in September, 1863, a Board of Trustees was incorporated, a lot purchased at an expense of $1,000, plans and specifications prepared by S. H. Williams, and the contract for building the church edifice let to J. W. Duncan. On the fourth of September, 1864, the building was completed and dedicated. It is of wood, seventy-two feet long and forty-two feet wide, and has seats for about four hundred persons. Its architecture is plain and unpretending but neat and tasteful. Its whole cost was a little over $10,000.

In the summer of 1865, the congregation erected an edifice on Mission Street, between Fifth and Sixth, where they worshiped until the summer of 1869, when a second house of worship on Tyler Street, between Taylor and Jones, was completed and formally dedicated to the service of God on Sunday, Nov. 28, 1869. The building, furniture, etc., exclusive of the lot, cost about $25,000. The Rev. John G. Fackler, through whose labor the congregation was gathered, was installed Pastor in April, 1866, and officiated until the fall of 1870, when a call was extended to the Rev. T. M. Cunningham, D.D., to become their pastor, which he accepted. He preached his first sermon on Sabbath morning October 9th, 1870, and continued to officiate until December, 1875. The congregation and Sabbath School increasing so rapidly, it was determined to sell this edifice, which was done in the month of August, 1872, to the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, who removed the building to their lot on Mission Street, between Sixth and Seventh, paying $7,500 for the building and furniture. The organ was sold to the Presbyterian Church of San José. In September, 1872, the contract for the present building, called the "Central Presbyterian Tabernacle," was signed, and the work commenced to erect a building which is free to all persons. It was dedicated to the worship of God on the 20th day of April, 1873. The building is an octagon

Thomas McSweeney, Assistants; Rev. J. Flood, Secretary; archi-episcopal and pastoral residence, 628 California Street, adjoining the Cathedral.

The erection of this noble structure was commenced on the seventeenth of July, 1853, during which year the basement portion was built, and the work was resumed the July following. Dedicated December 25, 1854. The church is seventy-five feet wide, fronting on California Street, by one hundred and thirty-one feet on Dupont Street. The church portion is forty-five feet high in the clear, and contains spacious galleries, and an organ loft. The ceilings are vaulted with a series of groined arches which are decorated, and every means have been resorted to for accommodation, light, and ventilation. The church can seat twelve hundred persons. The tower is at present one hundred and thirty-five feet high, and when completed with a spire, will be two hundred feet high. The edifice is of Gothic architecture, which has been carried out in every detail through the building. In all the arrangements for the erection of the church the greatest attention has been paid to the selection of the best material, and to the combination of strength and durability, which are admirably effected in its construction.

The present dimensions of the Cathedral not being sufficiently large for the vast congregation that attends it, it is intended to add about thirty feet more to its length. An archi-episcopal and pastoral residence on California Street and a beautiful and spacious baptistry, have also been erected.

Attached to the Cathedral is a large day school for boys.

St. Francis' Church.

Location, north side of Vallejo Street, between Dupont and Stockton. Rev. J. F. HARRINGTON, Pastor; Rev. Terence Carraher and Rev. James O'Connor, Assistants. Pastoral residence, 519 Green Street.

This church was organized by Very Rev. Anthony Langlois, in the spring of 1849, through whose efforts a commodious frame building was erected in the month of December, 1849, and was the first Roman Catholic Church organized in San Francisco. Its ground base was forty by one hundred feet, one story in hight. During the year 1859–60, a large and commodious church was erected, which was dedicated on the seventeenth of March, 1860. Its design is of the Gothic order, prevalent in the fourteenth century, presenting an illustration of the Christian architecture of that period. The principal features of this imposing structure are the towers, which project beyond the body of the church, and present in the elevation four divisions, rising to a hight of ninety feet from the ground. The entrance porch, or vestibule, has two side aisles, a semi-octagonal sanctuary, and two sacristies and is approached by a flight of ten steps, ascending the vestibule, from which, at each side, are entrances the galleries and baptistry, and in front are the pointed arched doorways which lead to the nave and aisles. In the central space between the towers are the three doorways communicating with the vestibule, and thence with the interior. Over the central door there is a large and elegant three-compartment window, and in the gable highly decorated rose window. Over each side door there is a lofty and spacious niche, which rises from richly molded brick corbels; there are also three marble panels with appropriate inscriptions, recessed in the brick work immediately over the doorway and gable; the work is finished with a massive and richly decorated cross.

The east and west sides of the structure are divided by buttresses into eight spaces, in each instance, seven of which contain the large, pointed arched windows which light the church. Beneath the floor of the church there is a large, well-lighted basement, which is used as a school room, and also as a place of meeting for the parishioners. The extreme dimensions of the building are sixty-six feet front by one hundred and thirty-seven and one half feet in depth; from the floor to the foot of the rafters is thirty-five feet, and from the floor to the apex of the ground arches is fifty-six feet. Cost over $100,000.

This church, founded by the Rev. John Maginnis in 1851, was originally located on the corner of Market and Annie streets, where the congregation worshiped, and a large and flourishing Sunday School was maintained until the early part of 1872, when the present commodious edifice was completed. The interior of the new church is a vast space of ninety feet in width by one hundred and sixty in length, and seventy-five feet high, to the crown of the ceiling of the nave. The nave comprises the main hall, which is forty-four feet in width, and on each side are aisles of eighteen feet in width, separated from the nave by rows of sixteen fluted columns, eight on a side, from which spring the upper walls of the main building. The ceiling is a succession of groined arches, and is beautifully frescoed in a ground of blue. The light is ample, there being thirty-six large windows in the wings and tier, and five in the chancel, all filled with stained glass. The windows of the chancel represent St. Patrick, as a center piece, with the four Evangelists. Rows of niches are in the walls, between the windows, twelve of the most conspicuous of which hold statues of the twelve Apostles.

A mammoth organ with fifty-two stops, twenty-four feet wide, thirty-six feet high, and eighteen feet deep, and weighing ten tons, the largest on the coast, has arrived from Germany, and is now in place. The lofty belfry, one hundred feet from the ground, contains a beautiful chime of bells presented to the church by Peter Donahue, Esq. The total cost of this great structure is about $175,000. At this date St. Patrick's is the largest and most costly church edifice in the State, and its lofty spire, supporting a large cross richly gilded with gold, two hundred and forty feet high, is one of the most conspicuous objects in the city.

First Unitarian Church.

Location, south side of Geary Street, between Dupont and Stockton. Rev. HORATIO STEBBINS, Pastor; residence, 831 Bush Street.

This church was organized September 1, 1850. The first edifice owned by them was erected in 1852, on Stockton Street, between Clay and Sacramento. The first regular Pastor, the Rev. Joseph Harrington, arrived August 27, 1852, and died November 2 of the same year, of Panama fever. The second regular Pastor, Rev. F. T. Gray, arrived June, 1853, and left in June, 1854, and died in Boston in February, 1855. The third regular Pastor, the Rev. R. P. Cutler, arrived August 31, 1854, and continued his ministrations without intermission until June 1, 1859, at which time he resigned his charge and left for New York. The Rev. John A. Buckingham then officiated as temporary Pastor until April 5, 1860. The Rev. Thomas Starr King arrived here with his family April 28, 1868, and commenced his ministrations the following day (Sunday) before one of the largest congregations ever assembled in this city.

During the period of Mr. King's ministry, the society extinguished a long-standing debt of $20,000, and erected a new church on Geary Street near Stockton, at a cost of $115,000, all of which has been paid. It is one of the most beautiful structures our city contains, and is remarkable for the purity of its architectural design and its interior beauty.

Upon the death of Thomas Starr King on the fourth of March, 1864, Rev. Dr. Henry W. Bellows, of All Souls Church, New York, President of the Sanitary Commission, and one of the most distinguished and influential ministers of the denomination, responded to an earnest call from the society, and left New York within a few weeks to fill the pulpit thus vacated, for a period of six months.

The Rev. Horatio Stebbins, of Portland, Maine, who had received an unanimous call from the society, became the permanent Pastor the following September. Since then the society has enjoyed its accustomed prosperity.

The pews of the church are not owned by individuals, but belong to the society whose organic laws require that they shall be rented annually at auction to the highest bidder. A clause in the New Constitution of the society provides that the property shall never be pledged, mortgaged, or incumbered for any purpose whatever.

There is connected with the society an organized charity called The Society for Christian Work.

This society was organized in 1865, for the purpose of affording relief to sick and destitute members and persons who were subjects of Great Britain at the time of their birth, and of promoting the social and intellectual improvement of its members. Between twelve and thirteen hundred members have been admitted to membership, and there are now some one hundred and eighty paying members, including thirteen life members, on the rolls. In May, 1867, the association was completely reorganized and incorporated, and a constitution adopted, containing several admirable features, and, among others, provisions for free lectures, debates, and social concerts. From the time of its formation the affairs of the society have been carefully and judiciously managed, and its charity dispensed with prudent liberality. The adults in the Home are embraced under two classes: Those who are able to labor, and who are received temporarily until they can obtain employment; and those who, by reason of age or infirmity, are incapacitated for exertion and are without means or friends to care for them.

The building of this institution is located on Franklin Street, between Post and Geary, and is a fine and commodious structure. It consists of a main building and north wing, two stories high, with full basement and French roof. The wing was commenced October 1, 1863, and completed April 20, 1864, and the main building was finished in the beginning of 1869. ORPHAN ASYLUM SOCIETY (Protestant).—Organized January 31, 1851, and incorporated February 10, 1851.

Original Officers.—Mrs. Albert Williams, President; Mrs. S. H. Willey, Vice-President; Mrs. A. E. Warren, Secretary; Mrs. Boring, Treasurer; Mrs. R. H. Waller, Mrs. C. V. Gillespie, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Joice, Mrs. A. Dubbs, and Mrs. O. C. Wheeler, Managers; Charles Gilmore, D. L. Ross, and S. Franklin, Trustees.

It originally occupied the building on the corner Second and Folsom streets, owned by Gen. H. W. Halleck, whence they removed the children in March, 1854, to the present building, corner of Laguna and Haight streets, just then completed, at a cost of $30,000. This house, built, of stone and brick, expressly for the purpose, is highly creditable to the institution, as one of the noblest monuments of San Francisco benevolence. During the years 1862–3, a large and convenient addition was made to the present building, at an expense of $30,000, which, together with the main building, will accommodate one hundred and fifty children. As a compliment to the Sansom Hook and Ladder Co., who, upon disbanding, donated to the asylum the building and lot owned by them, the new addition is called the "Sansom Wing."

Officers.—Mrs. Dr. Charles Keeney, President; Mrs. Ira P. Rankin, Vice-President; Mrs. Henry Haight, Treasurer; Mrs. F. MacCrellish, Secretary; Mrs. S. Whigham, Matron; Miss Treat and Miss S. W. Cor, Teachers; Benjamin R. Swan, Physician.

ORPHAN ASYLUM (Roman Catholic).—Organized March 23, 1851. In July of the same year the erection of a wooden edifice was commenced, and completed the following September. It was occupied in part for school, and a portion was temporarily used as a church under the pastoral charge of the Rev. John Maginnis.

On August 18, 1852, the asylum was taken in charge by the Sisters of Charity. In 1854 a capacious brick building was erected on Market Street, near Third, at a cost of $45,000. In 1864 an additional brick edifice was erected for a school, which was attended by several hundred day scholars.

In 1862 a farm of fifty-three acres, near Bay View, South San Francisco, was purchased, where there has been established a branch institution for very young children, called the St. Joseph's Infant Asylum. On this same tract of land a large and commodious wooden edifice with all the modern conveniences, was erected in 1872. The present building is beautifully located on a hill, commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country. It covers an area of two hundred and four by two hundred and eighty-two feet, including an open center court measuring eighty by one hundred and forty-four feet. It will accommodate about eight hundred children.

It is a source of gratification to behold the consolidated appearance presented by the several hundred little ones now provided for in the institution, which speaks audibly of the benign influence of the guardian Sisters, and of the true liberality of our community in their noble efforts to lend a helping hand to the fatherless.

SAN FRANCISCO FEMALE HOSPITAL.—Located 917 Sixty Street. This hospital was opened for the reception of patients on the first day of April, 1868. The object of the institution is the care of poor, sick women. There is no rule as to the nativity, religion, or social condition. It is a charity in the broadest sense of the term. Any woman who is poor and sick is entitled to share its benefits. It is a general hospital for all diseases, and for lying in.

During the eight years it has been open, there have been over six hundred births; of the whole number of births over fifty per cent have been illegitimate, showing conclusively the need of such an institution, as, if it were not for this hospital, the probabilities are that the greater number would have shared the fate of so many thousands of innocents murdered in their mothers' womb. There have been besides a large number of patients admitted for general disease. During the existence of the hospital there have been but thirty deaths, mostly from that scourge of our race—consumption. There have also been a very large number of outside patients treated, the physician and surgeon being in attendance every morning from ten to eleven o'clock to treat any poor persons who may come. It was supported by voluntary contributions until 1870, when the State appropriated $5,000 a year for its support. The Hospital is under the care of Dr. C. B. Hutchins.

Officers.—Mrs. David Conklin, President; Mrs. Isaac Hunt, Vice-President; Mrs. Dr. Hutchins, Secretary; Mrs. L. Thompson, Treasurer.

SAN FRANCISCO LYING-IN HOSPITAL AND FOUNDLING ASYLUM.—Incorporated April, 1868, for the care, protection, and proper treatment of unprotected female women, with their offspring, together with all other children that may be left in infancy by outside parties. All children will be considered foundlings.

The Trustees design to make this institution in the highest degree respectable and efficient, and available to women throughout every county in the State, regardless of religion, sectarianism, or nationality. Those who are in position to pay will be required to do so, for they do not consider it charity to do for nothing for persons who have the means; therefore, all applicants are questioned as to their ability to pay for the accommodations offered by the institution. But each must give satisfactory proof of having heretofore sustained a good moral character, and been esteemed respectable. It is expected that the institution will be supported by receipts from patients, donations, and contributions from different sources, appropriations by the City and State governments, and, in time, by bequests, legacies, etc. It is a special hospital, and for the specialties for which it was organized affords facilities not to be found elsewhere on this coast. No two patients occupy the same room at the same time. No cases of disease are admitted for treatment. It is therefore expected that it will be kept free from erysipelas and other contagious diseases that become the bane of lying-in wards connected with general hospitals. It is thoroughly ventilated, and will afford all the comfort that is to be found in the best conducted homes, and free from all intrusion. Competent nurses are in attendance day and night.

For consultation the attending physician will be found at the Hospital Asylum, 762 Mission Street, from two to three o'clock P.M. daily (Sundays excepted), or at his residence, 20 Twelfth Street, from nine to half past nine A.M. and from half past six to seven P.M. The Home was opened for the reception of orphan children, October 1, 1870, and is now occupied by seventy-five children, who are receiving shelter and education beneath its roof. $40,000 has been expended in its erection, and about $50,000 in support of its inmates. It is in a complete and exact sense a public charity, openly inviting the homeless, from all portions of the States of California and Nevada, to share in its beneficences. It derives its name from the fact of its erection by the Good Templars and its support by that Order.
